Blackrock School Holds 2013 Night of the Arts

The event showcased many types of student artwork created during the school year.

By Lauren Costa | May 10, 2013

Family and friends of Blackrock Elementary School students came out in droves on Monday night for the school's "Night of the Arts", held at Coventry High School.

Visitors were able to view exhibits of student artwork from various grades and listen to musical selections from the 4th and 5th grade bands, 3rd and 4th grade recorder ensemble and chorus.