

First Inductees Chosen for CHS Hall of Fame

The individuals will be recognized at a special May 31 ceremony.

By Lauren Costa | May 14, 2012

The executive board of the newly-formed CHS Alumni Association have chosen the following individuals to be inducted into the Coventry High School Hall of Fame for the year 2012:

- James A. DiPrete, former principal of CHS;
- Andrea Hopkins, Class of 1964 - successful business person, URI Alumni booster and outstanding citizen
- Robert A. Peltier, former teacher and football coach at CHS
- Anne Proffitt Dupre, Class of 1970, who recently passed away but taught law at the University of Georgia and served as a law clerk for United States Supreme Court Justice Harry A. Blackmun after graduating first in her law class from the University of Georgia Law School.

A dinner to honor inductees will be held on Thursday, May 31 at Nino's beginning with a reception at 6 p.m., followed by dinner and the awards ceremony 7 p.m.

Tickets are available at a cost of $25 by calling Ernie DiMicco at (401) 261-6902 or (401) 828-6203, or by sending a request to:

CHS Alumni Association, Inc.

P.O. Box 705

Coventry, RI 02816

If you cannot attend and would like to make a donation to the CHS Alumni Association, Inc., fill out the attached form and send it along with your donation to the address above.