

Former Patriot speaks at CHS

Former New England running back Tony Collins, part of the Patriots' 1985 AFC championship club, spoke to students at Coventry High yesterday, spreading a message of giving 100 percent and staying positive.

Collins explained to the students that his career went downhill due to drug abuse, and he eventually found himself out of the league before turning his life around.

Submitted photo