

Opening Up at Hopkins Hill

Open house at elementary school gives parents a chance to check out what's going on in classrooms

Kendra Leigh Miller • Daily Times

Mrs. Lori Pare, who teaches first grade at Hopkins Hill Elementary School in Coventry, welcomed her parents and students at last night's open house and gave them a run-down about how she conducts her class and her expectations. "When they walk into my class I tell them they're already smart, it's my job to make them smarter," she said. "When they comes here, they know they're safe and that speaks volumes."

