

REAL PAGE TURNERS AT HOPKINS HILL

LEFT: Third grade students at Coventry's Hopkins Hill Elementary School checked out some fun pencil and eraser accessories at the school's book fair on Thursday.

BELOW: Students pack the book fair and browse the many titles and accessories offered.

Kendra Leigh Miller • Daily Times

KENDRA LEIGH MILLER
kmiller@ricentral.com

COVENTRY — The annual book fair, sponsored by the PTA, took place throughout the day Thursday as students from all grades had the opportunity to browse various types of books including fiction and non-fiction as well as educational games, posters, fun pens and pencils and journals.

Each grade level went through during their respective library times with each area broken up into age- appropriate sections.

