

Coventry Public Schools to Host Military Awareness Night

The program will provide valuable information to military families.

- By Lauren Costa - January 30, 2012

On Feb. 8, Coventry Public Schools will be offering a “Military Awareness Night” to Coventry military members and their families at Alan Shawn Feinstein Middle School at 6 p.m.. The night will be filled with information on free camps and activities offered to the youth of military families presented by members of the RI National Guard and RI Family Assistance Center.

In addition, adults will have to chance to learn about how to deal with the “Emotional Cycle” during the deployment of a loved one. Parents and other family members will also be sharing their military experiences to benefit one another.

The first part of the presentation is open to all family members including children. Children will then be excused to take part in supervised activities. Child care will be provided for military children only.

An RSVP is being requested, but is not required. Contact organizer Kim Sturdahl at 822-9426 ext. 226 or via email at sturdahlkim@coventryschools.net for more information.