

Coventry eighth-graders put on a show

WARWICK — Eighth-grade students from Alan Shawn Feinstein Middle School of Coventry gave a seasonal music concert at the Warwick Mall on yesterday. With band and chorus members present, the ensemble presented a diverse selection, according to band director Anthony Costa.

"They sang both secular and non-secular holiday music, Hanukkah and multicultural pieces," said Costa.

This is the 10th year he has taken students to the mall to sing, Costa says.

"The eighth grade has been working really hard," he said. "I'm really proud of the music students. They're so active [at school] in other parts of the building, but they're able to balance their schedules better than some adults."

The group closed with a chorus and band performance of "White Christmas."
