

Tiogue Schools Holds Night of the Arts

The event showcased many types of student artwork created by students in grades K-5.

By Lauren Costa | June 1, 2012

Family and friends of Tiogue Elementary School students came out in droves on Thursday night for the school's "Night of the Arts".

Visitors were able to view exhibits of student artwork from various grades, listen to musical selections from the school's band and chorus students and enter raffles in the cafeteria.

