COVENTRY —Tearful parents and teachers shared in the last special moments of the fifth-grade graduation at Tiogue Elementary School Wednesday, marking students' last steps before they walk into middle school in the fall.

"These are all my kids," said Tiogue Elementary School Principal Louise Seitsinger, who said through tears that this is the class that started when she started at the school. "All the kids are amazing."

Lucy Colby and Erin Gagnon received the Presidential Gold award.
