
Washington Oak School makes cards for veterans

Submitted Photos

The students in Mrs. O'Connell's second grade classroom at Washington Oak School made Veteran's Day cards. The school Principal Dr. Donna Raptakis sent the cards to her brother, Colonel Donald Degidio, who is stationed in Korea for soldiers who are stationed there. Colonel Degidio is Commander and District Engineer stationed in Far East District, Korea in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.