

Washington Oak stays busy

Submitted Photos

ABOVE: The students at Washington Oak School participated in a Feinstein Food Drive as part of their Jr. Scholars Good Deeds Program. They took part in a Western Day and each student brought in four food items which will be donated to the Coventry Food Bank and members of the school community. Students collected over 1,000 items. The winning homerooms for this collection were Mrs. Almeida and Mrs. Easton. Featured in the picture are students in their western attire along with Mrs. Springer, school secretary and Dr. Raptakis, school principal. The children did a fantastic job in this collection!

LEFT: The students at Washington Oak School also recently celebrated "Read Across America Day" in honor of Dr. Seuss' birthday. They dressed in red, white, black and wore their Cat in the Hat's. Children read stories in their classrooms and participated in a variety of learning activities. At 3:00 all of the students "Dropped Everything and Read" for one half hour. Featured in this picture are: Mrs. Lamothe, school nurse, Mrs. McDonald, school librarian and Dr. Raptakis, school principal along with children who dressed for the event. It was a wonderful day for everyone!
