

Washington Oak Students Celebrate 'Read Across America Day'

The nationally recognized day was in honor of Dr. Seuss' birthday this year.

March 17, 2012

 Mrs. Lamothe, school nurse, Mrs. McDonald, school librarian and Dr. Raptakis, school principal along with children who dressed for the event.

Students at Washington Oak Elementary School recently celebrated "Read Across America Day" in honor of Dr. Seuss' birthday.

They dressed in red, white and black and wore their Cat in the Hat's. Children read stories in their classrooms and participated in a variety of learning activities and at 3:00 p.m., all of the students "Dropped Everything and Read" for one half hour.

It was a wonderful day for everyone!